When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

| 1891..... | 30,100 | 300,000 |
| 1892..... | 30,000 | 300,000 |

Summing up the total we find as follows :—

| | Average, 1886-91 | 1892 |
|---|---|---|
| | $ gold | $ gold |
| Wool..... | 53,500,000 | 63,200,000 |

| Maize..... | 6,100,000 | 10,500,000 |
| Linseed..... | 2,200,000 | 2,400,000 |
| Hay..... | 160,000 | 300,000 |
| Agricultural | 14,360,000 | 26,600,000 |
| Lumber etc | 1,400,000 | 1,900,000 |
| Mining..... | 600,000 | 1,200,000 |
| Total.... | 96,400,000 | 129,000,000 |

The trade-returns for the half-year ending June 30th. compared with those of the same period of last year as follows :—

| | $ gold |
|---|---|
| June 31st. | |
| 1891 ..... | 62,100,000 |
| 1892 ..... | 66,200,000 |

Assuming the above returns to be correct the exports for 1892 would shew thus :—

| | $ gold |
|---|---|
| 1st. half-year..... | 66,200,000 |
| 2nd. " " ..... | 62,800,000 |
| Total..... | 129,000,000 |

Thus the total exports for 1892 are likely to reach the unprecedent sum of £25,800,000 sterling, which compares with previous years thus :—

| | $ gold | £ stg. |
|---|---|---|
| 1886 ..... | 87,800,000 | =17,500,000 |
| 1887 ..... | 87,400,000 | 17,400,000 |
| 1888 ..... | 91,800,000 | 18,300,000 |
| 1889 ..... | 99,100,000 | 19,800,000 |
| 1890 ..... | 104,700,000 | 20,900,000 |
| 1891 ..... | 109,000,000 | 21,800,000 |
| 1892 ..... | 129,000,000 | 25,800,000 |

The official tables of exports give values in past years much in excess of the above, because wheat was valued at £12 per ton, and other items were equally absurd. We have adopted a uniform price for each article during the 7 years, for example £6 a ton for wheat and £3 for maize.

Only last week we published a careful estimate from the Handels Zeitung, which put down the exports for 1892 at 120 millions of gold dollars or £24,000,000 sterling, being very nearly the same as the result obtained above. We are disposed, therefore, to believe that our previous estimate of £17,000,000 was too low, and prefer to adopt £25,800,000.

It may be said that we give too flattering a statement, and of course much depends on the market prices in Europe. For instance we have accepted for wool the Government valuation of 13 pence per kilo, say 6 pence per lb. A fall of one penny would reduce the item of wool by $10,500,000 gold or £2,000,000 sterling. This exemplifies how difficult it is to arrive at a close estimate.

Taking the above figures as correct the total value of Argentine products (exclusive of manufactures) will be found to stand approximately thus :—

| | Total value $ gold | For export $ gold |
|---|---|---|
| Pastoral products. ..... | 148,500,000 | 99,300,000 |
| Agricultural do..... | 90,400,000 | 26,600,000 |
| Lumber do... | 5,000,000 | 1,900,000 |
| Mining do.... | 1,200,000 | 1,200,000 |
| Total..... | 245,100,000 | 129,000,000 |
| Home consumption..... | | 116 100,000 |
| Exportation ..... | | 129,000,000 |
| Total..... | | 245,100,000 |

This is an averange of $60 gold per head which will be found to compare with other countries as follows :—

| | Products. $ gold. | $ per inhab. |
|---|---|---|
| Argentina . | 245,100,000 | 60 |
| G Britain . | 1,260,000,000 | 33 |
| France.... | 2,300,000,000 | 60 |
| Germany[.. | 2,120,000,000 | 42 |
| Russia .... | 3,200,000,000 | 35 |
| Austria.... | 1,650,000,000 | 42 |
| Italy ..... | 1,020,000,000 | 34 |
| Spain..... | 870,000,000 | 50 |
| Belgium .. | 280,000,000 | 45 |
| U. States.. | 3,880,000,000 | 61 |
| Canada.... | 280,000,000 | 56 |
| Australia.. | 310,000,000 | 77 |

From the above it will be seen that the pastoral and agricultural products of Argentina per inhabitant are almost on the same level as in the U. States, and surpassed only by Australia, which latter country is far ahead of every other in the world.

ATHLETIC GAMES IN ROSARIO.

The annual games of the Rosario Athletic Club came off on Santa Rosa, who smiled most benignly on the sports: the receipts amounted to nearly three thousand dollars; but the entrance fee was preposterously high, 3 dollars. I know the club is a little needy, but it is bad policy. The grounds were well filled on this occasion, but there was great discontent. The Committee committed another grave error, I do not know whose idea it was; the grounds were fenced in with canvas, a very English-like, dog-in-the-manger arrangement.

A gentleman has been kind enough to send me a list of the events and the winners, which I enclose.

W. P.

These sports came off on 30th inst. in the Club grounds Plaza Jewell and were in every way a grand success. The weather was everything that could be desired, and in consequence the number of spectators was large. Towards 1 o'clock the Grand Stand was filled with the elite of the Rosario families.

The following is a list of the events with the names of the winners.

Putting the 16 lbs. shot: 1 A. Stewart; 34 ft. 2 in.

II. A. Cornwall.

120 Yards Hurdle Race [10 flights] Handicap.

I. E. Danvers. Owed 14 Yds.
II. B. C. Hume do 8 do.

Kicking the Football.

I. O. E. Baines—Place kick.

III. S. Beaumont.

I. Maclachlan.
II. Boardman.
III. Beaumont.

The Committee here decided to alter the order of the Programme and postponed the Potato race.

¼ Mile Flat Race Handicap, for the Championship of the Argentine Republic.

Time 2'-4"—I. Boardman 70 yards start.
II. E. P. Rowland scratch.
III. N. Cornwall 10 yards start.

A good race well won by Boardman, who was the only competitor who had taken part in the previous race [220 yards] in which he ran second.

5 Mile Bicycle Race.

I. J. Grasso.
II. B. O. Hume.

Owing to an unfortunate spill O. Grasso was not able to compete, or possibly this race might have ended differently and would certainly have been better contested.

I. E. P. Rowland.
II. Maclachlan.
III. Cornwall.

Potato Race.

I. Francis.
II. Cornwall.

Veterans' Race 220 yards limit 35 years, with a yard per year for a start.

I. Diaz.

350 yards Flat race [Handicap] [members only].

I. Boardman, 10 yards start.
II. Maclachlan, scratch
III. F. Francis, 10 yards start.

When entering the straight the runners were all in a bunch, but Boardman first and then Maclachlan soon fund their way to the front.

2 Mile Bicycle Race Handicap.

I. E. Amelong, 79" secs' start.
II. J. Grasso, scratch.

Obstacle Race 250 yards.

I. S. Price.
II. Cornwall.
III. F. Francis.

This produced the usual amount of laughter and fun.

All fours Race 50 yards.

I. Yeoman.

Consolation Race.

I. Thompson.

This was the last event, after which Mrs. E. Jewell gave away the prizes to the lucky winners, receiving at the close of the meeting three hearty British cheers. One little improvement might be suggested to the Committee, viz: that the times or distances should be put up on the board, and that it should be placed in a higher and more visible position.

The spectators on the Grand Stand who wished to see the results on the board generally had to content themselves with a front or back view of some "interesting". Committee man who was standing in front.

THE ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Stuart Pennington read a most interesting paper before the members of this Society on "The Fauna of the Argentine Republic." The lecturer commenced by telling the zoological divisions of the World as marked out by naturalists; of these South America is one, the fauna of this continent being almost entirely distinct from that of North America. He then gave in considerable detail a sketch of the different species indigenous to this continent, commencing with the monkeys as the most nearly allied to the human race, giving much information on the peculiarities which distinguish them from similar species in the other divisions: there are also some species such as the armadillos which are peculiar to this continent. The monkeys have nearly all of them prehensile tails, which serve as a fifth hand. The sloth is so strange an animal that when first described, European naturalists refused to believe in its existence, yet its extraordinary structure is eminently adapted to its peculiar mode of life. The 'escuerso' is a much maligned reptile; it is commonly supposed to be venemous, but Mr. Pennington assured us that the creature had no poison glands, as he had proved by careful dissection. The animal known to commerce as the nutria is not the real nutria at all, but a species of water-rat, a totally distinct animal. The names also given to many of the birds are very misleading, as the Spanish 'conquistadores' gave them the names of European species with which they have no relation whatever. The biscacha is a rodent peculiar to this country, and one whose habits are of great interest to the naturalist. In spite of its resemblance to the prairie dog of the northern continent, it is a perfectly distinct animal, though both dig out subterranean mansions for themselves, and live in the company of owls, whose dirty habits are a great contrast to their only clean way of life.

A cordial vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Drysdale, seconded by Mr. Graham, and carried by applause, to which was added the hope that Mr. Pennington would at an early date give the remainder of his lecture on the Doctrine of Development, for which time was wanting on this occasion.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

GENERAL GOSSIP.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Aug. 4th.

At Huelva yesterday a thick mist hung over the sea on the principal fete-day in honour of Columbus. At six o'clock in the morning the caravel Santa Maria which had been lying all night off Palos set all her sails to go down the river; but there was no wind. She was taken in tow by a gunboat. The voyage down the river past the monastery of La Rapida, on which the flags of all the American States were flying, and down to the bar took about an hour. Thundering salutes and deafening cheers hailed the quaint-looking fifteenth-century ship as she passed through the squadrons of foreign vessels outside. The first vessels on both lines of foreign warships were Argentine cruisers, and as the caravel sailed by, the crews manned the yards and cheered enthusiastically, while the ships' bands played the Spanish National Anthem, the Spanish vessels responding with the Argentine National Hymn. The caravel with its attendant Spanish Flotilla went out several miles to sea and returned at 11 a.m. There was the same ceremonial on its return. The foreign ironclads afterwards left for Cadiz. The Alcalde of Palos sent a descriptive and patriotic telegram to President Harrison, who responded in fitting terms for the people of the New Western World in grateful remembrance of the name and fame of Columbus. It is officially announced that the Columbus relics at the Chicago exhibition will contain priceless historical treasures, which will be brought from Europe in a United States cruiser and protected in the World's Fair, day and night, by United States troops.

We have had our own little Shelley centenary going on. The atheistic, socialistic, polygamistic and angelic poet was born Aug. 4th, 1792. The Stopford Brookes, Archdeacon Farrar and other literary divines are willing to bow the knee under protest. It is not so much Queen Mab as that Harriet who is in the way; but truly both melt into thin air before a reminiscence of the 'Cloud' the 'Lark' and the 'Sensitive Plant'. Shelley was a great lyrist and came just when he was wanted. Had he lived now he would only have darwinised Queen Mab and spoiled her. And as for Harriet the suburbs of London are now so large and so secure she would scarcely have been noticed.

The British Association has met at Edinburgh under the best auspices. Sir Archibald Gieke's inaugural address was a popularly designed historic sketch of the progress of his favorite science—Geology—from Hutton and Werner—Plutonists and Neptunists to the present day. If the Greeks had habitually eaten 'Neapolitans' and 'mixed creams' they would have had some god of ice, but as I never heard of him, I would suggest—Hutton to Gieke, Plutonists to Glacialists. The glacial theory is Gieke's particular madness. No doubt it is true as far as it goes, but one tires of ice as we tired of Hutton's fire and Werner's slow process of creation by little drops of water, and little grains of sand. Gieke does not believe that the world is six hundred and eighty millions of years old. He is inclined to some mean between Lord Keloin's 20 millions and Professor Tait's ten millions. What do you think? I am sorry to say he coincides with the general opinion that there will be another glacial period when once more roses and pheasants will give way to scrub and woolly rhinoceroses. "Not in our time," you say. Who can tell? Who knows how many times during the next million years we may come back again here to expiate our sins? Would you believe it, that instead of talking of these matters the giddy world is gibing at the British Association for the Advancement of Science, and calling its respectable members "trippers," "faddists," "bores," "free hospitality hunters," "talkee-talkees," "pinketers" and "notoriety hunters." Even Professor Armstrong in this week's Nature speaks of the solemn and dreary farce of reading papers to empty benches. The serious young men of our time are discontented, and threaten to go over to specialist meetings such as the Psychological and Criminological Congresses now "on." They refuse to belong to a "thing" of which anyone can be a member by paying a "sov," and which is only supported by the "beastly" public for the sake of its excursions, receptions, free hospitalities, and conversaziones.

Lady readers will be interested in a piece of information which "Marjorie" gives in to-day's Woman. This sprightly correspondent observes :— "It is no longer fashionable for women to kiss one another. That women who kiss one another before a drawing room full of men and women are guilty of 'bad form" is no news, but now even the inter-feminine kiss in the sanctity of the boudoir is forbidden, and the same women who affect the aerial shake of the hand, now say to one another, 'Consider yourself kissed." This saves much straining of the collar and corset, and a possible obliteration of artificial beauty from the lip or cheek." A cynic might ask whether, now that kissing has been discontinued, the favourite expression "My Dear" might not follow suit.

The Bishop of Lincoln's case is finally settled by Judicial Appeal. The judgment in the main confirms the Archbishop of Canterbury's decisions, and leaves the question very much where it was before the Church Association kicked up a rumpus about East and West, mixed chalices and millinery, Ritualists and the Guardian exult; but there are some illegalities that are very plainly laid down in the decision; only, the result of a long litigation shows that it will not be worth the candle, nor the bell nor the book, for the Church Association or anybody else to incur costs for so little gain.

The art-world is in great excitement owing to the resentment of a young sculptor, who exhibited in the last Academy exhibition a fine group which the Magazine of Art insinuates was mainly the work of "ghosts"—that is assistants; one of them being an American, who suddenly returned to his native shores without paying his London bills, and another who is supposed to be in Brussels. No names are mentioned, although we all know to whom the Magazine referred. The sting of the scandal seems to be that the young sculptor suspects the accusation to come from a very high personage in the Academy. He, therefore, boldly and publicly challenges Sir Frederick Leighton and the committee to say, whether in their opinion the group—he believes to be referred to—is or is not the work of the artist who claims it. Sir Frederick—who, by the way, is talked of as one of the dissolution peers to be—has been interviewed on the subject. He says the committee have nothing to do with criticisms or anything connected with pictures or statues when they are once passed by the committee for exhibit.

Just a word about Ould Ireland. Indeed it is Balfour I am going to speak kindly of. We all know that Mr Balfour with his light railways and other matters intended to economically revive the west of Ireland. Naturally, the time is not yet come for us to judge how far the First Lord of the Treasury's state socialism will succeed; but one of the magazines this month contains a captivating article on the subject. Some thing has been accomplished by the importation of Yorkshire stallions and Angus bulls, to the great delight of the Donegal farmers, whose horses bred from derelicts of the Spanish Armada were none of the best, and whose cattle were unshapely and wild. But, so far, the great reform is in the fisheries on the Connaught coast. Numbers of private persons had previously attempted by money and caresses to wean the people from that barren soil and induce them to take to the wealth freely offered by the sea. Private efforts, as has been found in similar cases the world over, are inadequate. The Government or the State not only provides the nets and the boats and the teachers from Arklow and fish-curers from Scotland but makes arrangements with the railways and steamers and overrides rings and secures markets for the Irish fishermen in Liverpool and Manchester. The want of markets was always the drawback. It is interesting to be told by one of the Government committee, the Rev. W. S. Green, to whose efforts much of the success is due, that when nets and boats were ready and the people were induced to set sail, there was no luck. For three days they did nothing and began to grumble and threatened to put back. their leader and companion—the clergyman—knew there were fish about and lo! they came—many basketsful—a take of 13,000 was made in one night. From that time the people have taken to the fisheries. £3,000, the net balance, was divided amongst the fishermen. It will be the same with the cattle and crops. But!—what will Mr. Tim Healy say to State Socialism? And if it answers in Galway, why not in Bethnal Green?

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Thursday Evening

The steamer Malvinas, which was engaged during several months in saving the cargo of the German steamer Artesia in the Straits of Magellan near Elizabeth Bay returned to this port yesterday. The Malvinas managed to save a good deal of the cargo of the Artesia, which was a magnificent steamer, but is to-day a hopeless wreck. She was lost in a fog.

The Finance Committee of the Chamber of Deputies is at present studying the Bill for the coining of 3 million silver dollars.

The Custom House Director handed 15,733 to the London Bank yesterday.

The marriage of Dr. Alfonso Pacheco to Miss Adelina Gonzales took place yesterday. A ball was given at the house of the bride's parents.

The death is announced of Don Carlos Favaro, an old and well known resident; also of Mrs. Carmen S. Parsons, sister Judge Sosa.

Messrs. Kropp Zwank and Co. of B. Ayres, are making arrangements for extending their business to Montevideo and have applied to the Commercial Judge for the registration of the firm.

Senator Don Agustin de Castro is dangerously ill.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

(Communicated.)

A complete success was the general verdict of the Social on Tuesday evening, 30th inst. The room was crowded, and the singing of the choir in parts, sols and choruses most enjoyable. Mr. Walker, who conducted, deserves the warmest thanks, as he is always doing his best towards the success of the Association.

The readings were very good, particularly the "Death of Uncle Tom."

After the Concert, we all adjourned down stairs to tea. Mr. Cobham well deserved the vote of thanks proposed by the Chairman, Mr. Brown.

A small detachment of warrant officers and men from the U.S. s. Essex were with us, and the Chairman expressed the pleasure it gave the meeting to see them amongst us, and at the next social hoped they would bring some more of their shipmates.

Mr. Carlon thanked the Chairman, as the meeting had been a most enjoyable one.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman terminated the evening.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Rosario Railway Company have opened to traffic their extension from Santo Tome to Santa Fe. This is the first broad-guage line to Santa Fe and the opening of the extension points to the foresight and enterprise of the Company, whose concern is one of the finest in the country. We received the following telegram yesterday from Mr. Wiberly:—

Santa Fe, Thursday 2 p.m.

The first train, composed of two sleeping carriages and two waggons adorned with flags, arrived here. There were about four hundred people on the platform in the station. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested. This is the first train that has entered Santa Fe over a broad guage.

The N. R. Board have asked the Government to approve the plans presented by the Board of the Pacific Railway for the proposed structives at the crossing with the Rural Tramway.

The N. R. Board have asked Government to approve the horizontal brtdge and sectional plans presented by the Board of the Villa Maria and Rufiuo Railways

We take the following from the Railway News of the last Saturday.

"The receipts of seven principal Argentine railways published this week amount to £50,528 compared with £35,848 in the corresponding week of 1891, being an increase of £14,681 or 41 per cent for 1892.

The mileage open on revenue account was 3,633 in 1891 and 4,013 in 1892; an increase of 10.5 per cent in the current year.

The average receipts per mile per week are £12 11s 10d this year, against £9 15s 9d in 1891, showing an improvement of £2 16s 1d, equal to 28.6 per cent in 1871.

The value of the £ sterling was about $20 in 1891 compared with $16.5 this year, the appreciation in value of currency being equivalent to 20 per cent in 1892.

The higher gross receipts of 41 per cent are due to 20 per cent appreciation of currency, and 21 per cent inccease in traffic. The receipts per mile per week are 8.6 per cent higher than last year, after allowing for the 20 per cent appreciation in currency.

The goods traffic of the Central Argentine Railway is three times as great this year as in 1891, and of the Ensenada 67 per cent. higher. The gross receipts of the Central are 88 per cent. higher, and those of the Buenos Ayres Western 75 per cent. higher, and of the Rosario Railway 45 per cent higher than in the corresponding week last year.

CONGRESS.

THE SENATE.

Twenty four Senators sat at 3 p.m. yesterday, General Roca in the chair.

A message from the Executive was read in reference to the Direction etc. of the Bateman Legacy.

Another asking for the cancelling of the Extradition agreement with Perú in 1884.

Several urgent Bills approved by the Lower House were received.

The voting for the member of the House to occupy the Presidency of the Republic in case of "acefalia" then began, and Dr. Mariano Varela was elected by 13 votes against 11 for General Roca.

Senator Tello presented a Bill to re-establish a charity Lottery in this city.

The sale of 16 leagues of Chaco land to Sr. Salvatierra was approved.

The House rose at 3.40.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Spring smole her first smile yesterday, and open cars made their appearance on the tram lines; but there was a winter nip still in the air that obliged many passengers to take a nip at the end of their journey, to restore the caloric in their systems.

The bogus revolution in La Plata on Wednesday night was the talk of the town yesterday. The whole thing reads more like a joke than anything else, and we hope it has not frightened the wits out of our London friends. Mr. Nunez, Chief of the Provincial Police, was the hero of the funny occasion.

The Military College will be reopened on the 15th. inst.

The cholera news from Europe is making many people think of an early departure for the camp this season. No use, good people. The cholera plague of 1867-1868 was worse in the camp than in town. Better keep cool and remain in town near your family physician. Dear old Liverpool was declared a "dirty" port by the Health Board yesterday.

The Scotch Church was crowded to the doors yesterday by the friends who assembled to witness the wedding of Mr. G. O'Connell of Venado Tuerto and Miss Runciman, sister of Mr. Inglis Runciman of this city. The Rev. J. W. Fleming B. D. performed the ceremony, at which the bride was attended by Miss Janet Runciman as bridesmaid, and Mr. Hector Innes acted as "best man." The choral service was very effective and admirably rendered. After the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to the Cafe de Paris, where the Rev. Dr. Smith A. M. proposed the health of the newly wedded pair in his usual impressive and felicitous way, the toast being received and drunk with evident heartiness. We beg to be allowed to repeat our sincere wishes for the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell.

All ye who love a pleasant evening take care not to forget the entertainment to take place at Green Lomas to-morrow night, for the funds of the Lomas Athletic Club. There is no excuse for people in town not going, as there will be a special return train when the performance ends.

Donne Curiose is given this evening at the San Martin Theatre. An enormous audience is expected, as it was on this night last year that the theatre was burned down; and the public will be anxious to show the energetic owner their appreciation of his spirit in so promptly raising the popular place of amusement from its ashes.

Mr. Peuser's window, in Calle Cangallo, was crowded yesterday with persons admiring the Map of Ancient Ireland, which Mr. Peuser is about to publish for benefit of the Boys' Orphanage. Subscribers [$25 currency per copy] may enroll their names at the office or with Mr. Peuser.

Ferrari is doing a very ticklish thing in taking his opera company to Santos and Rio at this time of year, when yellow fever will certainly blaze up again at the first breath of Spring. Moreover, it is well known that Yellow Jack has a strong partiality for those who earn their bread on the theatrical boards.

Two mails for veteran Europe on Monday next per Umberto and Portugal, closing at 1 p. m. for the first and 10 a. m. for the second. Which will be in Europe first? We'll back the Italian for a new silk hat. The Sud America leaves to-morrow. Mail closes at noon.

"But why are you so very anxious to see a whale, Mrs. Trotter?" asked the American captain after the lady had asked for the twentieth time if one was in sight. "I want so much to see one blubber," captain. It must be very impressive to see such a large creature cry."

Mrs. Algar, the wife of an officer at Sialkot, India, claims to have discovered a cure for leprosy. The Civil and Military Gazette, of Lahore, says:—"Mrs. Algar leaves for England, and we hope she still will lose no time in submitting her discovery to scientific trial, for upon the result of this depend the lives and happiness of thousands in every region of the world. We have made inquiries respecting the efficacy of the above specific for leprosy from the Rev. Fathers Leo, Lievin, and Eamendor, who are at present in Lahore, and all the three reverend gentlemen have readily testified to the fact of having witnessed two wonderful cures having been accomplished in their presence by Mrs. Algar. One of these was of a native who had been suffering from water leprosy for a period of fifteen years, and had lost two of his fingers, while the other was a native who had been afflicted with this malady for about five years. These gentlemen had closely watched the beginning, the progress, and the ultimate completion of the cure in each case in Sialkot. The medicine, we are told, consists of a vegetable decoction, and is taken internally."

The inscription of Municipal voters which closed on Sunday last gives the miserable result of 6,201. Yet there are half a million people in the city, and foreigners have a right to inscribe and vote. No wonder that city affairs go to the well-known firm of the Three D's, when the citizens are so careless of their own interests.

A. D. 1892 is approaching the "sere and yellow leaf" stage. The unerring sign of this is that Almanacks and Diaries for 1893 are already making their appearance.

Mr. Black, the well known jeweller in Calle Corrientes, has now the same standing in all English-speaking circles here as the famous firm of Storr and Mortimer in London. For new designs none of his ancient craft can beat him. His latest "novedad" is a beautiful silver spoon, made to resemble a mate cup and "bombilla," with the Argentine arms on the bowl of the spoon. This truly artistic novelty was produced by order of the officers of the U. S. war-ship Essex, each of whom will take home one spoon as a "recuerdo" of their pleasant sojourn in these waters. We strongly recommend English people requiring anything from a wedding ring to a service of plate to pay Mr. Black a visit before going anywhere else.

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, September 1st 1892.

The dull monotony of the market was ruffled this morning by the startling news from La Plata, where Governor Costa, it appears, has nipped a conspiracy in the bud. It is an open secret that for some time past a certain political party has declared the La Plata Government beyond the pale of normal and legal political opposition; all means are deemed justifiable to upset the present order of things in the province of Buenos Ayres, and both Governor Costa and his active Chief of Police, Commander Nunes, have been keenly following the revolutionary scent. It might be superfluous to add that, under such circumstances a revolution or a "coup de main" is very improbable, owing to the great vigilance of the authorities; and, unless the National Government abet a subversive movement in La Plata, the opposition have very few prospects of upsetting the Government.

La Plata is a deserted village to-day. You see some signs of life at the Gefatura de Policia, at the Government House, railway station, and in front of the bankrupt state banks. Outside the radius of the above, the town is a cemetery; grass grows in the streets and on the side-walks, and horses are seen grazing under the stately palm-trees. Houses are to be let by the hundred and many are going to ruin. La Plata in fact has no other activity than that supplied by Government and legal business; the only inhabitants appear to be Government employees and "procuradores;" but for these La Plata might be termed a deserted city. Impecuniosity, not political ferment, is the bane of the place, for one would suppose that one hundred policemen would keep order in the city. Meantime, strenuous efforts are made to change the political order of things, and for months past the market has been prepared to hear of some subversive movement in that quarter. Even to-day it was whispered in every nook of the hall that the La Plata Government is doomed; we very much doubt it, as from personal observation we remarked that every precaution has been taken to prevent any surprise. For the sake of the gold bulls another plot might be hatched twixt night and morning to harden the premium and supply a little startling news for the columns of the papers.

Gold ruled hard all morning, at more or less the same level as yesterday. The La Plata conspiracy was the topic of the hour and helped to enliven affairs at the ring. About eleven thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $53.60, fell to $53.50, and closed at $53.60, say 229.33% premium. Eight hundred sovereigns were sold at $16.65, say 230.35% premium. The market closed at last rates between buyers and seliers.

The main feature of the morning was the sudden spring in Patriotic Bonds. Affairs were not very active, but prices were very firm. Over one hundred thousand were sold at 72 to 72 60 for cash—a rise of over 60 cents since yesterday—and 72.80 for the end of the month. A sudden demand sprang up this morning and the stock was eagerly looked after. Internal Bonds advanced rapidly also; about one hundred and fifty thousand were sold; the price for cash rose from 67.70 to 68.20; the rate for the end of the month closed at 68.60. Municipal Consols were weak kneed and closed heavy at 59. Catalinas were fairly active and firm, closing in advance at 12.30 for cash and 12.40 for the end of the month. La Plata Cedulas were firm all round at 29.20 to 29 30. Obligaciones of the Banco Constructor de la Plata were firm at 1.70.

Exchange continued slack; the market cannot shake off its dullness. Discounts continued very easy. The cheques of the State banks were quoted at 2½% discount for Provincial Bank and 2½% discount for National Bank. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were in demand at 20.20.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Eight leagues of land in the Partido Olascoaga are reported sold for 400,000 dollars, half cash and half in bills at one year's date. In the sale is included the stock of horses and steers.

Thirty squares of ground in San Jose de Flores have been pledged for 600,000 dollars. A syndicate has advanced up to the present $350,000 and will fill the balance. The operation is one of magnitude and shows that money is more offered on real estate.

The Avenida de Mayo Committee have sent in an urgent appeal to the National Government to advance $2,000,000 to complete the boulevard.

Messrs. Carrick and Co have applied to the Government for the right to catch seals at States Island. They offer to the Government 1$ gold for every seal caught and promise to establish vessels on the route between Buenos Ayres and States Island.

The Government has approved the surveys of Don Mauricio Barilari in the colony of Mr. Oveyero in the Neuquen territory. The surveys of Mr. Thomas Dodds for account of the Granadera Nacional Co. in National Territories have also been approved.

The balance of the Banco de la Nacion up to 31st ult. shows that as yet the Caja has not paid the 6 millions to the bank. The discounts here and in branches now reach 28 millions. The Bank discounted yesterday.

In cereals there have been some large sales: 1000 tons maize at 6.80 in San Nicolas and some lots sold in Once at 6.50. 5000 bags wheat at from 9 to 9.80.

The Montevidean Legislature has finally approved of the English Bank Moratorium. This settles the question.

The amortization of the National Cedulas which took place yesterday proved a great success, viz.:—

The crush at the Contribucion Directe office for last few days was such as to justify a further extension of time for payment.

Owing to the extraordinary fuss and nonsense in the papers about the new Cabinet we learn Dr. Plaza prefers London to Buenos Aires and has declined the honor.

Business at the second hour in gold was almost an 'airy nothing', brokers being more occupied in discussing the sitting of the Senate and l'affaire La Plata, than looking for orders. Prices ruled stiff and a fair business was done in stocks.

The Finance Minister has ordered the Custom House to enforce payment from the railway companies of the import dues they owe the State; and, in case they do not pay, to stop despatching what comes for them.

The Finance Minister inspected today the Fiscal Deposits, and will order next week some steps to improve the service therein.

One of the events of yesterday was the opening of the mammoth bridge of the Republic, that of the Rosario railway over the Salado, thus opening broad gauge communication with the capital of the grain province. Mr. Wibberley, the popular sub-manager of the line, represented the company, and to Mrs. Wibberley fell the lot of breaking the bottle of champagne that inaugurated the biggest bridge in the whole republic. Few people reading the pithy telegram that announces the safe arrival of the train at Santa Fe will have conceived a correct estimate of what has been accomplished in bridging the Salado in a solid stretch of considerably over 2000 metres, or say 14 mile; but enveloped as we are here in politics it is easy to realize that such inaugurations take place without provoking a thought. "Tempora mutantur." A few years ago the Salado bridge would have occupied a higher pedestal in public estimation.

Don Carlos Lix Klett, President of the Argentine Chicago Exhibition Committee, has informed the Government that Mr. William Tirus, who is at present here negotiating for a direct line of steamers between here and New York, has offered to convey the Argentine Exhibits to the Chicago Exhibition free.

Messrs. Funes and Lagos sold 2 mestizo stallions of Messrs. Olivera and Casares' breed for $500 to Tarnaguera, 1 stallion of the Loncoy breed for 410 and 2 mares 1 Trakenen breed for $900.

Messrs. A. Bullrich and Co. sold yesterday 4 well-known racing horses: Faust by Saxifrage and Finance for $14,000 to G. Cateuna; Lucullus by Bay Archer and Lucette II for 1400 to M. de Elia; Yatay by Muncaster and Satire for 3,000 to P. Senillosa; Galga by Sweet bread and Symbol for 2,100 to S. Mesnage. Also 16 Percheron and Clydesdale from Mr. Herrera's establishment in Tuyu at from $600 to 1,500% each.

Mr. P. G. Quirno sold by order of the Courts the house Calle Cabrera No. 37, measuring 8.27x28.58 for $9,000%.

The Conversion office will withdraw during the present month from circulation $1,000,000% in bonds of the Internal loan.

Mr. Fco. Wright sold in Chivilcoy 200 squares of camp for $18,900%, buyer Fco. Cagnone.

Messrs. Norton & Son sent round the following circular :—

Owing to the increased inquiry for freight room by steamer to Buenos Ayres, Montevideo and other River Plate ports, we have concluded to give the Trade an opportunity to help us to establish steam communication, in connection with our old "Regular Line" of sailing packets. This will give our customers the opportunity to ship by steam or sail as they may elect. We shall dispatch a first class Steamer about.....

It will be our endeavor to make the "Norton Line" popular with all exporters, showing partiality to none, managing the business as strictly Freighters at both ends of the route, therefore, owing to our mercantile position, we can act independently and be prepared to name low rates of freight on all classes of goods, giving refusals of freight room for Kerosene Oil, Rosin, Lumber and other staple articles.

We shall also endeavor to charter only good steamers with limited passenger accommodations (something better than the ordinary "Tramp").

Rates of freight for the present will be as follows:—

For Montevideo and Buenos Ayres,
Refined Petroleum, 10 to 20,000 case lots, in customary low top cases 35c. net.
Do do less than 10,000 case.. 37½ / 40c. net.
Do do High top cases..... 2c. per case additional.
Rosin ..... $1.35 net per 280 lbs.
Large lots Harvesting Machinery..... 18c. & 5% per cubit ft.
Hardwood Lumber..... $16.00 net per M.
White Pine do to fill, in limited quantities. $10.00 net per M.
Turpentine, Lubricating Oil in barrels, Lard, etc. 18 to 20c. & 5% per cubic foot.
Miscellaneous goods, 20 to 25c. and 10% per cubic foot, as to value, quantity, etc.

Special low rates will be made for Machinery, Locomotives, R. R. Cars, etc., etc.

When requested, we will give privilege on Bills of Lading for delivery of goods at Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, also Buenos Ayres and Rosario.

All Freights to be pre-paid.

Having no interest in the buying and selling of goods on commission, the Trade can readily see that we are in a position to work for their interests, which are also ours.

Trusting you will give us your support and so enable us to send steamers regularly, we are,

Yours respectfully,
Norton & Son.

EXTRACT
TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
